Van Liew's Defense Is Dramatic.

Evidence of Both Sides All In—Arguments Now to Be Made.

Many Chico Citizens Testify for the Normal School President.

Question of Veracity Only Between Him and Miss Ada Clark.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

HICO, July 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. C. C. Van Liew, with some dramatic touches, brought his testimony to an effective climax today and made a profound impression upon the large audience.

He declared that he had often been the counselor and adviser of the young women in his school, the protector of their morals, and not their traducer. Overcome with emotion, the accused head of the State educational institution declared the charges against him unfair and unjust.

"During your whole connection with this institution, as well as with any other institution, it has always been your aim and purpose to uplift and uphold those institutions," Dr. Van Liew was asked by Attorney Archibald Yell.

"I have had many and many cases in which I have played the part of the minister in my conduct of this school, in which I have endeavored to save girls, and sometimes have saved them. I have been their spiritual adviser, sometimes, in a way. And the girls know it was their spiritual adviser in a way that the girls' mothers should have been their advisers before being sent to this school. You will excuse my indignation in regard to this matter, because it is unfair and unjust and I feel it keenly."

The applause following the speech of Dr. Van Liew did not subside until Chairman Coggins had rapped repeatedly for order. Immediately a recess was taken.

Trustee E. A. Warren slapped Dr. Van Liew on the back. "You did fine, doctor; you did fine!" he said.

TESTIMONY ALL IN.

The testimony for and against Dr. Van Liew has been submitted. Now remains only the summing up by Atty. Gen. Webb, the State representative in the hearing, and the arguments of A. Yell and A. M. Seymour, attorneys for Dr. Van Liew.

The extreme heat this afternoon which made it almost impossible to sit with any degree of comfort in the Norman school building, was one of the big arguments against holding a night session. There was a plan to attempt to complete the case tonight. In the morning it is expected the case will go.

New Duty Added to List of Those of Minneapolis Park Policemen.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) July 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hereafter mashes and rowdies in Minneapolis parks will be spanked instead of arrested. There will be no fast ride to the station, no arraignment in Police Court, no fine, and no workhouse. Instead of all these things the masher and the rowdy will be publicly laid across the knee of the nearest park policeman and the palm of the hand will descend at intervals until the masher or rowdy shows a commendable desire to reform his ways. The spanking edict went out today from Chief of the Park Police Burt Kingsley.

to the jury of trustees and a decision is expected before night.

Public sentiment in favor of Dr. Van Liew showed itself at the hearing today. Not only the personal friends of the accused, but the young daughters who had graduated from the school and fathers whose sons had been educated there and women who had lived their lives within the shadows of the school came forward to tell of their regard for the accused man.

It was a demonstration in which all classes took part, and was one that has made a remarkable impression upon the trustees who are sitting as the judges of the president of the school.

Mrs. W. C. Hendricks, widow of the late Secretary of State Hendricks and a sister of Louis Glass of San Francisco, presented a picture on the stand. A woman who, long since has passed the three-score and ten mark, she had seen the Normal School grow to its present state of efficiency. She had watched class after class graduate from the school and has taken great interest in the school work. Only words of praise for the methods of Dr. Van Liew came from her.

DRAMATIC SCENE.

As Dr. Van Liew denied bit by bit the story of Ada Clark, his chief accuser, the young woman sat within a few feet of him, watching his face as he uttered every word, oblivious to all around her. At her left sat her friend and confidante, Nora Lindsay, the young woman who furnished the only bit of corroborative testimony in her story.

Her patriarchal father, intent upon what was being said sat on her right. His eyes fixed upon the face of the man his sister accuses, Rev. C. Todd Clark drank in every word of the testimony given by the school president.

It is a question of veracity between Ade Clark, the pretty young woman, who, as a student at the school, went into the office of the president upon school business and there says Dr. Van Liew hugged her, and the word of Dr. Van Liew, who flatly denies the story of the girl.

There was no third party present. It remains a question of veracity for the trustees to decide between the young woman who has stuck to her story and that of the man, who, for

TERRIFIC HEAT WAVE HOLDS MIDDLE WEST.

Several States Swelter Under Burning Rays of Sun—Kansas and Oklahoma Suffer in Hundred-Degree Weather and More.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, July 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Middle Western States sweltered again today in the blinding rays of the sun. In Chicago the mercury climbed to 95° at 4 o'clock, ten degrees hotter than it was at noon. No deaths were reported in Chicago from the heat, but many persons were prostrated and removed to hospitals.

In Kansas and Oklahoma, the mercury mounted ten degrees higher than in Chicago, while the Kansas winter wheat belt suffered more from the heat than the corn belt. The minimum temperature in Wichita was 90°, while the maximum was 106.

At Kansas City the thermometer registered 102° in the shade, and many prostrations were reported. Dodge City, Kan., was also in the most torrid zone, the maximum there being 102.

Denver is having the hottest spell of weather known for some time. As a rule the nights in Denver are cool, but the minimum temperature there during the last twenty-four hours was 90°. The maximum was an even 100.

While the temperatures in the corn states remain quite high, the crop losses were relieved today when rain fell in many sections of the big produce states. Parts of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Wisconsin, and Michigan were given a good wetting down.

In the Vastian land where the homesteads of eastern Kansas, the quarter of section lie, the temperatures ranged from 90° to 98°. The Chillies grew in the fields, and the days were hot and dry, but the soil was moistened by the rain.

In the spring wheat states where the long-continued drought has seriously damaged the growing wheat, temperatures ranged from 90° to 98°. The soil was moistened by the rain.

As a result of the heat and continual southerly winds in Central Kansas it is reported that crops are beginning to suffer.

The State Board of Agriculture of Oklahoma, in a statement issued today, estimated the fruit damage there due to hot winds at between 45 and 50 per cent. Business was practically at a standstill this afternoon at Guthrie, where the temperature ranged between 90° and 100° in the shade to 115° in the sun.

COOK COMING OUT OF HIDING.York Magazine to Take Up His Defense.*Programme Includes Suits Against Peary.*Cards from Etah Expected Almost Any Day.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES

NEW YORK, July 26.—[Exclusive sketch.] Capt. James Oshon, close friend of Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the noted polar explorer, today announced that the rival of Commander Peary in the North Pole chase was in a stone's throw of New York's paper offices and that tomorrow would be started a defensive magazine article in his behalf. Dr. Cook, that captain said, expects records from Etah almost any day, as soon as they arrive he will come of hiding and lay his claims before American public, once more defining his position and charging that he did not reach the pole.

H. Schenck, counsel for the magazine which will undertake the Cook defense, said today that Dr. Cook will start some sensational suits for against Peary and others, because of the ridicule he has been subjected to since Cupidgen's savants said that the polar discovery honor did not belong to him. The magazine undertaking the defense exploitation of Cook will challenge the magazine tomorrow to put the story of Cook's return into the hands of the reporters who will pass the merits of his claims.

The magazine suggests a civil engineer, a hydrographer, a navigator, an explorer for members of the committee. If such a committee decides the Cook claims to be valuable, Cook's magazine champion will defend.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Old Mother Earth, like femininity through all time, with far greater success than most men, has defied man to learn her. Scientists still admit their defeat. Their latest estimate credits her "not above 70,000,000 years or less 50,000,000 years."

his estimate, given official sanction through publication by the Smithsonian Institution, is the result of studies.

Frank Wigglesworth Clark and George F. Becker of the United States Geological Survey.

Prof. Clark, in a paper entitled, "A Preliminary Study of Chemical Denialism," presents a review of available data for the world, of the proportion from a chemical point of view.

Becker discussed the question in paper on "The Age of the Earth" in a more philosophical point of view.

The age of the earth has always been subject for discussion among men of science and largely without any definite agreement among the representatives of the different branches of science on account of the different points of attack.

Here are the more recent discoveries to the earth's age have placed time below:

Lord Kelvin, in 1862, 20,000,000 to 400,000 years, with a probable 90,000 years.

Clarence King and Carl Barus, in 1864, 24,000,000 years.

Lord Kelvin, in 1867 revised his figure, 20,000,000 to 40,000,000 years.

De Lapparent, in 1890, 57,000,000 to 90,000,000 years.

Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, in 1893, maximum, 70,000,000 years.

J. Joly, in the age of the ocean, 90,000,000 to 90,000,000 years.

W. S. Bell, in 1898, are of the ocean, 80,000,000 to 90,000,000 years.

Hundreds Believe They Have Been Cured Miraculously by Visiting Chicago Church.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES
CHICAGO, July 26.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Hundreds of silent testimonies, comprising many discarded utters, braces and surgical appliances, made the triumphs close of annual pilgrimage to the shrine of St. Anne in St. Anne's Church, West Thirty-eighth Place and South California avenue, today.

Many miraculous cures are reported by the Rev. J. V. Lamarre, pastor of the church, whose list of those who have received answers to their prayers during the annual Novena will not be complete until the final reckoning.

For the last eight days, hundreds of afflicted persons have flocked to the shrine of the Catholic saint, some coming from long distances, in the belief that they would be aided by their prayers and that a miracle would be worked in their behalf. The importance of the Chicago church has been recognized during the last year by the gift of two additional reliques of the saint.

The shrine now contains five reliques of St. Anne. They consist of parts of the bones of the fingers, skull and arm.

Frank Higashi of Riverside was arrested in this city last night by Detective Hostick and Special Officer White, who apprehended the prisoner at the request of Sheriff Wilson. NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS CHEER DOWNFALL OF W. J. BRYAN.

Party Leadership of State Wrested from "Peerless One" in Test Vote on Elimination of Platform Plank With Accompanying Speeches Unless Submitted as Section of Report of Committee on Resolutions.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

GRAND ISLAND (Neb.) July 26.— Amid a tumult of cheering, Permanent Chairman Smyth of the Democratic State convention today read the result of a test vote of the gathering which practically took from William J. Bryan the Democratic leadership of Nebraska, which he has maintained for twenty years.

The vote came on a motion made by Congressman G. M. Hitchcock, a candidate for the Senatorial nomination, and in effect was to eliminate the introduction of a platform plank, with accompanying speeches, unless submitted as a section of the majority or minority reports of the committee on resolutions.

Mr. Bryan, seated as a member of the Lancaster County delegation, was upon his feet at once with a protest, and proffered an amendment that would modify that intent of the original motion. A dozen delegates made many motions and heated speeches on the subject, the Bryan adherents renouncing the Hitchcock motion as gag rule and their opponents declaring that "individual rule" must not prevail in the convention.

Chairman Smyth ordered a roll call on the amendment, and the gathering was silent as the vote of the counties was called that will determine the Bryan strength. When two-thirds had been called, foes of Mr. Bryan realized he was defeated, and a wave of cheers that drowned the roll call began.

The combativeness of the speaker finally won the audience and he was given a round of applause as he concluded.

The Committee on Resolutions reported at the close of Mr. Patrick's speech and the majority report was read.

The platform endorsed the administration of President Taft and favored the giving to metropolitan cities and cities of the first class the right to make their own charters.

It was declared that there was unanimity of opinion in every phase save one, and its adoption was asked.

Opposition to the endorsement of Gov. Shallenberger as illegal, was disregarded.

The plank in dispute then was read by the chairman. It was:

"We heartily approve of the daylight salvo law and we command the courageous action of Gov. Shallenberger in approving it."

PLANK IS ADOPTED.

A vote upon the plank was then taken and it was adopted by a vote of 710 to 16.

It was then announced that two minority reports would be submitted, one by W. J. Bryan and the other by H. B. Flaherty. The reports were startling in their brevity. That of Mr. Bryan read:

"We favor county option as the best method of dealing with the liquor question."

That of Mr. Flaherty was equally brief. It was:

"We favor local option as now provided for by law, but are opposed to county option."

PLANK ON LIQUOR.

The majority plank on the liquor question, favored by five of the seven members, then was read, as follows:

"We are opposed to making county option the other plank for the reformation of the liquor traffic a question of party creed. We stand for and insist upon strict enforcement of our present laws, and believe any further changes in our liquor legislation should be decided by a majority of the people who are in favor of good government and public morals will be better served in that way than by dividing the people into hostile factions on purely moral issues."

While the Committee on Resolutions was drafting its report, Gov. Shallenberger and Mayor Dahlman of Omaha, rivals for the nomination for Governor, addressed the convention and hundred verbal shots were exchanged. The Omaha Mayor said he welcomed a fight in the convention as a trip of several hundred miles to a harmonious gathering was not worth the expenditure of fare.

Mr. Shallenberger also asserted his support for a lively battle and announced his willingness to stand for a selection on the endorsement of the daylight closing law, the operation of which had been attacked by Mayor Dahlman and his followers. The Governor also professed that the delegates had selected together with a Democratic Legislature who would give them opportunity, through executive action, to settle the saloon question definitely.

The convention took a recess until 8 o'clock to await the report of the Committee on Resolutions.

DISORDERLY CROWD.

Dissension among the resolutions committee delayed the presentation of the divergent reports until half hour after the hour at which they were to report at the evening session.

A disorderly crowd that packed the hall prevented many of the delegates from occupying their seats and also delayed the proceedings. The differences of the Shallenberger and Dahlman factions were minute points of the good and bad.

DRYAN'S ARDENT SPEECH.

Mr. Bryan, speaking from the platform in behalf of the minority plank presented by him, was greeted by shouts of applause and was listened to in silence. He said in part:

"If I have advocated that which is not good for the State, let me feel your wrath. If you find I have done anything not for the good of the State, I do not ask your mercy."

"Who less than I could desire to disrupt the Democratic party? Am I not aware what a repudiation at your hands would mean to me? It has been said I am making this fight because I am not a candidate. Nothing could be more untrue."

Mr. Bryan here referred to the political battles he had waged, and declared he had been fearless when his name was mentioned.

"I have been called dictator for expressing my opinion. Your candidates here today have expressed their sentiments by what law am I compelled to remain silent when I feel the good

I have been sold out by the liquor interests in my own State. I have been sold out by these liquor Democrats in my own State and saved by the votes of self-respecting Republicans who refused to aid in the scheme. I expect to be in politics for many years yet. I expect to aid in the work of the Democratic party, but I will not remain silent when a band of political assassins attack me."

WILL FIGHT ALONE.

"I am not willing to admit that this is a final settlement of the question," continued Mr. Bryan, "and on a moral question I am not afraid to express my opinion and stand on it, if I have to stand alone."

Mr. Bryan declared he had learned on his return from South America, of the plan to betray Nebraska into the hands of the liquor interests. He said the election of United States Senators and State officials was a part of the conspiracy and that he felt called upon to prevent the political burglary of the state.

"The Republican party and Populist party of this State have adopted cooperation," said Mr. Bryan in conclusion, "and you do not know where to become an issue. Your speakers say the tide is turning toward Democracy in national issues; then make your fight on them, not in defense of the liquor traffic."

The speaker then attacked the dealers of liquor in the country, in which Omaha is located, declaring they were not the choice of the Democrats of the county.

IOWA DEMOCRATS.

CONVENTION PROSPECTS.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

OTTUMWA (Iowa) July 26.—The recent primaries having settled the matter of candidates except two Supreme Court judges, delegates to the Democratic State Convention expect to dispose of other business at a one-day session tomorrow.

A new State Central Committee will be chosen with Nicholas Reed, the treasurer, in all probability as chairman.

Judge H. C. Van Wagener of Sioux City and P. B. Wolfe of Clinton for the Supreme Court bench, so far have no opposition. Jerry Bullard, who was elected Governor of Iowa, Martin J. Wade of Iowa City, probably will sound the keynote of the campaign.

In assuming the temporary chairmanship of the convention, Senator Brown spoke only along general political lines. Senator Brown said, in part:

"Fourteen years ago, when McKinley was chosen President on the pledge that he would pass a tariff law with protection to the American industry, he kept his pledge and the country prospered. Five years later, Roosevelt succeeded to the Presidency and promised to carry out the McKinley policies and retain the protective features of McKinley's tariff act. The country continued to prosper. When, four years later, in 1905, William H. Taft was chosen President on the pledge to revise the tariff law, but to retain its protective principles, he likewise kept the faith and the country still prospered."

Senator Brown took up the record of the Republican party in national affairs, and particularly in the history of the Legislature had Congress in a single session enacted so many important and progressive laws as did the Republican Congress just adjourned.

PLEDGES REDEEMED.

The conservation law; the postal savings bank law; the admission of Arizona and New Mexico; the provision for a tariff board to investigate and report facts relating to manufacturing and commerce were mentioned as instances of the Republican party redeeming its platform pledges.

The speaker gave credit to President Taft for the success of the measure.

Senator Brown took up the record of the Republican party in national affairs, and particularly in the history of the Legislature had Congress in a single session enacted so many important and progressive laws as did the Republican Congress just adjourned.

"I am glad to say," he continued, "that the entire Nebraska delegation in Congress, those splendid fighting, courageous, determined Republicans in the House—Kinkaid, Norris and Hinshaw—and our two Senators voted for the law. They did it because it is a better law than the one it replaced.

They did it because it contained a recognition of the platform pledge to establish a maximum and minimum tariff, a dual system employed by every tariff country of any importance in the world. They did it because it reduced the duty on many necessities of life."

The Senator told of the amendment of the Senate, which was introduced under the direction and urging of President Taft, increasing the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission relative to rates. He closed with a warm tribute to the President.

Naval Authorities Investigating Loss from Paymaster's Safe on Recalling Ship Philadelphia.

ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.

SEATTLE, July 26.—City detectives have been called upon by the officers at the Puget Sound Navy Yard to aid them in investigating the loss of $2200 from the paymaster's safe on the receiving ship, Philadelphia.

The loss was discovered Saturday night and since then the investigation has been conducting a quiet investigation. As yet no arrests have been made, although all the enlisted men aboard the ship have been denied shore leave pending the completion of the investigation.

It was incorrectly reported at first that Eugene E. Tracy, under an alias, was responsible for the loss of the money. Tricou, who is paymaster on the cruiser Pennsylvania and who has not been aboard the Philadelphia in two months, has been made a member of the Board of Inquiry, conducting the investigation into the alleged theft.

Unknown Man Blown to Pieces While Constructing Infernal Machine in Tent Near Boca.

INT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

TRUCKEE, July 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) An unknown man was blown to pieces in his tent in the woods six miles from Boca, Sunday evening, while constructing a bomb for some mysterious purpose.

The dead man is believed to have been a Frenchman and the supposition is he was an anarchist who sought this secluded spot to manufacture deadly bombs for use in causing death and destruction elsewhere.

He made no acquaintances and no one knew his business. He was horribly mutilated by the explosion. He had loaded one piece of common iron pipe with powder and was in the act of loading another when the bomb exploded.

His tent was torn by the explosion and through the rents in it the body of the victim was seen by those attracted to the scene.

SEWAGE PROBLEM.

STOCKTON CONSIDERS PLAN.

STOCKTON, July 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Plans for the disposal of the sewage of this city and an increase of the water front by about five miles have been prepared by City Engineer Tunney, and presented to the Council. The proposal is to purchase 100-foot wide strip of land from Harrison Street, where the Mormon channel runs, to Stockton, about three thousand feet. The plan is to extend the San Joaquin River to the San Joaquin. The plans are looked upon with favor and will probably be carried out. There will be wharf space to either side of the channel to a distance of 100 feet and five miles in length, thus greatly increasing the water front as well as the receipts, which in a short time would pay for the total cost of the canal. It is estimated the total cost would be between $100,000 or what it would cost to install a new sewer pipe line, which must be constructed at an early date.

SAMES SUCCEEDS SMITH.

HEADS CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

PREScott (Ariz.), July 26.—Hoyle A. Smith resigned as chairman of the Territorial Central Committee at a meeting late yesterday and Albert M. Sames of Douglas was elected as his successor. Sames is at present United States Commissioner at Douglas, where he located eight years ago coming from Washington D. C. He is a graduate of the George Washington University and was a member of the committee banqueted last night at the Yavapai Club. Then followed a public reception at the Hotel St. Michel. Delegate Sames was compelled to make a statement which to suffice the busi-gold and the California Mother Lode Gold Mining Company had claim to the ground, tying up all the ore that had been taken out.

Bell guarded the property during the day and Page at night. The court decided that Page, Bell and Veazie were the legal owners of the ground last summer, and that they had the right to the high-grade rock ready for shipment. It had disappeared and he claims it was removed while Page was on watch. He also believes he saw some of this ore on the dump of the California Mother Lode after its removal and that there was a conspiracy on foot to rob him.

He says Page once remarked that no matter who won the lawsuit, he, Page, would get $2000.

Physician in Whose Office Girl Died Gives Liberty—Autopsy Reveals no Crime.

INT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

PORLAND (Or.), July 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) After being held in the custody of detectives since last night, Dr. J. J. Rosenberg, in whose offices Veira Bell Hall, aged 18, died Sunday, was released at noon and it is understood that there will be any prosecution.

Following the surreptitious removal of the girl's body to Oregon City after she had passed away from the effects of chloroform administered by the physician, an autopsy was held this morning in Oregon City by Dr. E. A. Sumner, under instructions from the District Attorney's office. The autopsy revealed that there had been no effort to perform a criminal operation.

"I have not passed upon the matter entirely," said Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald, "but will look into the statute covering the matter. If a criminal operation was proposed it may be giving the chloroform would be held to be part of the crime."

Investigation into the death of Miss Sumner began yesterday afternoon after the announcement was made that the girl had died in an automobile while being taken from Portland to her home in Oregon City Sunday night. It was said that the girl had passed away of heart failure in the automobile while accompanied by the physician, her mother and Elmer Erickson, a youth who had been frequently in her company.

LONG TRAIL OF CRIMES.

Stockton Authorities Think They Have Hardened Criminals in Couple Under Arrest.

INT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

STOCKTON, July 26.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Sheriff Sibley and his deputies, who have been working up the evidence against the couple who gave their names as Tomlinson and Elmer Mills when arrested last week for stealing two fine horses from the Lawrence ranch near Lathrop, believe they have a pair of hardened criminals in the local jail.

By tracing the trail for months the officers say there is no doubt that they are William Colan and Ethel Lamar, accused of robbing the woman's husband in Sacramento of $170 and also of attempting to burglarize the vault of the Standard Oil Company. The couple, known as the "Lamars," left a long string of crimes behind them and dropped out of sight completely. They boldly drove through San Joaquin county and helped themselves to the woman's husband's wages in fact about everything they could get their hands on. By sending out four or five deputies in automobiles the pair were soon run down and captured near Mendota by Deputy Sheriff Sturke.

WASHINGTON. ALASKA NOSES ALL COUNTED.

Perilous Work.*

Thrilling Experiences of the Census Takers.

Many Narrow Escapes, But Every Man Survives.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON July 26.—Temperatures from 30 to 70 degrees below zero, snow from three to twenty feet deep, and blowing a blizzard most of the time. No human habitation in sight; a covering at night except tent, and "grub" that was not many times eaten. These are some of the conditions under which the recent census was taken in the interior of Alaska.

The report of Chief Special Agent Jokenski, covering the work in the south and inland District of the Territory, has just been received by Director Durand, and while the story is simply told, it is a wonderful, thrilling narrative of adventures, showing what Uncle Sam starts out to find up his children, and spares no expense to locate them and satisfy himself as to their status.

Mr. McKenzie's narrative made public tonight, comes in advance of his return so that it is impossible to give the population of the country covered by the twenty assistants, or reasons of its own. The Census Bureau determined to number the Alaskans during midwinter.

Mr. McKenzie made his headquarters at the mining town of Fairbanks. His first special agent was appointed on the 16th of last November, and the work was completed by the 11th of last April, when McKenzie left for the States.

His experience in getting out of the country was by no means as thrilling as some of his experiences engaged in the work, but it was certainly enough to arouse interest in a large spirit. Of this he says:

"I came out on the mail coach, arriving at Valdez on the 20th, after a varied experience consisting of being delayed two days by a blizzard, crossing rushing streams even when the horses could swim and the sleds floated and swam day and night with the thermometer often as low as 40 below zero."

WINTER WORK.

The bureau's principal reason for a winter census is found in the fact that getting about the country is much easier at that than at any other season. There are no bridges in the country and as crossing the streams when frozen over is a serious problem, Mr. McKenzie said, that to have made an enumeration in the summer would have required the services of from 100 as many assistants while the winter would have been six times as great.

It also expressed doubt as to whether the result would have been as satisfactory. As it is he is of opinion that it is more economical to do the work in the winter.

Much hardship was necessarily involved in the work. Only men incurred the rigors of the Arctic climate were employed, and while they suffered severely none of them lost their lives. Summing up the conditions Mr. McKenzie says:

"The work was performed during the severest winter known in this part of Alaska by the oldest settlers and the men kept constantly and conscientiously at it until completed. They did not appear to be a man who did not have a pride in the work, an ambition to come up to record for traveling in the north, a desire to impress the people in his district and to have his credit less loss of time because of extreme weather than any of the other agents. That the service lost none of the men from freezing to death and that every man returned safe is a matter of congratulation and great fortune."

The experience of the agent in Chindar district is a fair example. Speaking of him the chief agent says he was not a scholar, but a man who had lived there for years and was well fitted to undergo the privations necessary. That his good qualities were but to the severest test the report shows.

AGENT'S WORK.

"Severe weather was encountered throughout all of his work," says Mr. McKenzie, "and at no time after he left Fairbanks until he returned did the thermometer get above 30 degrees below zero. His long journey away from the base of supplies made it impossible for him to carry extra grub and dog food, and he was obliged to live off the country, killing moose, mountain sheep and other fresh meat. During the work he lost two of his dogs from freezing to death. He himself froze portions of his face several times, and at one time dropped into six feet of open water, nearly losing his life."

In crossing the Arctic range and returning, he traveled above the timber line eighteen hours in each direction, which, in a country where fire is necessary, can be understood to be a considerable sacrifice. He traveled in many places where no white man had ever before been and his record is considered unusual to say the least." That the work was done well is indicated by the following extract from the official narrative:

"In this district there is almost an incessant snowstorms from October to May and trails are obliterated in twenty-four hours. Few men except the Indians will travel in this district in the winter and even they make but one trip a month. Twice he nearly lost his life and had he not been accompanied by an Indian guide probably would have."

"At one time he and the guide and a mule driver and two Indians were lost in the storm for two days and were found at the end of that time by a rescue party, which came out to locate the mail." Of the Tanana men we are told:

"Not less than four times was this agent compelled to travel in an exhausted condition and assisted to a stopping place. He lost three dogs and several times froze his face. That he survived the work and came back alive was the wonder of the old inhabitants of the country."

The government officers say they believe the entire Southwest has been obtaining its supply of opium from this place.

FINE FOR WIFE PUNISHER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

CHICAGO, July 26.—Despite the fact that he locked his wife in their bathroom and kept her a prisoner there on bread and water for twenty-four hours, Mrs. Mary O'Brien was ready to forgive everything yesterday. Judge Newcomer could not see it that way after he had heard the woman's testimony in the South Chicago Municipal Court, and he fined O'Brien the sum of $100. The fine, however, was not for the "hot" picnic with strawberries and lemonade on the side, as indicated by the following extract from the official narrative:

GOOD START.

VERNON DRAWS FIRST BLOOD.

Brackenridge Proves Enigma to Commuters.

Coy's Batting Is Feature of Snappy Contest.

Hooligans Jump Into Third Place in Race.

Vernon, 2; Oakland, 1. Vernon's Commuters, after a pleasant trip south, stacked up against Brackenridge yesterday afternoon at Chutes Park and as a result the Hooligans at last have a lead of several points over their deadly rivals and also jumped over the Angels, into third place. For the last ten days the Oaks and Vernonites have either been led for fourth place or only one point separated them, and it took a struggle between them to open a gap.

"Brack" was in an off-tide and he could have blanked the visitors if Vernon had not muffed a long fly in the third inning. The Oaks only got two singles off him. The Hooligans were fortunate in getting to Willis at the right time in the second and third periods and in these two frames they had two tallies that gave them the edge. Coy, Hosp and Brown were the only Hooligans who were able to touch Willis to any extent, but the "touchers" they did was sufficient, with the exception in the "grand style" of reaching home in the "grand style" of reaching home in the second and scored Hosp with a one-hopper in the next frame. That was enough to beat the Oaks.

OAKS FULL OF GINGER. The Oaks had lots of "pop." They're on the warpath for Hogan's scalp. Yesterday they put up a better fielding game than the Hooligans and if Brack had not been so effective could have come much nearer winning. The Hognanites were without the services of Roy Brashear. He was replaced by substitutes Hogan and Fisher. And well, the team was not at its best. Although the Vernonites only had a margin of one run at the finish, in a nail-score game, they greatly outdistanced the visitors. Two hits in both seventh and eighth were productive of no runs and Willis deserved credit for pulling out of bad holes in both these frames. Only in the third period did the Oaks land on "Brack" in running style. In the other frames the Vernonites fielded very close at hand and the last and Stovall's bunt was the only one of the four errors charged to the Hognanites that really aided the Commuters that really aided the Commuters.

The Oaks got a bingle in each of the first two frames. Maggart, in the opening period after singling over Hospe, drove in a run. The visitors were in the lead. Cutsawh to Brackenridge's precision to the center garden but was nailed trying to duplicate Maggart'sfeat. The Hooligans tried hard in the first frame but didn't do anything. Carlisle was safe on a walk. Warens bundle and Taylor sacrificed him home. But Hospew to Cutsawh and the mighty Roy actually fanned the breeze.

COT STARTS SCORING.

Cot started the ball rolling for the suburbanites in the second by opening with a pretty double to right field. Fisher sent him to the three-quarter-way house with a sacrifice, and Linday also put down a bunt. Cot had great confidence in Lindsay to turn the trick, for he started for home as soon as Willis began to wind up, and he ran across the pan almost as soon as Willis was ready to start. Lindsay was easily thrown out at first. Brown singled through second and then "Brack" drew four balls, but two men were gone, and Carlisle made the third by flying to W. Hogan.

The Oaks ended things up in their next trip to the plate. Mitzie went out on a grounder. Lindsay to Fisher. Willis sent a low one rolling to between first and first. Fisher rolled the ball, but "Brack" dropped his throw to the bag and the Commuter heaver was safe. This didn't count against the Hooligans, though, as Willis was caught stealing second.

The real trouble started when Swander and Wolverton, in succession, lined singles into the right garden. Maggart sent up a long fly to the left fielder, and the distance was over. In the ninth, Cutsawh hit through Brackenridge's precision to the center garden but was nailed trying to duplicate Maggart's feat.

The Hooligans tried hard in the first frame but didn't do anything. Carlisle was safe on a walk. Warens bundle and Taylor sacrificed him home. But Hospew to Cutsawh and the mighty Roy actually fanned the breeze.

HOOLIGANS REGAIN LEAD.

The Hooligans again jumped into the lead, and made the last tally of the game, in the third. This was another earned tally and the Hooligans fully merited it. Stovall flew out to W. Hogan and Hosp lined the ball into Swander's territory, well out of the reach of the Commuter. It was a second on Roy Brashear's out. Cutsawh to Cameron, and then Coy singled over Wares, scoring Hosp. Coy tried to pliff second, but was nailed ending the period.

The Oaks menaced the plate in the

JEFF GIVES IT UP, TEX IS HOPEFUL.

Jeffries will never fight again, according to his statement to Tex Rickard, last night. He says he has enough money now to last him the remainder of his days and he does not have to worry.

But Rickard believes there is still a chance. Jeff is going hunting the latter part of the week and Rickard thinks that when the big fellow finds out his true physical condition he may reconsider.

Ten days before the fight, Jeff was a better man than Johnson," said Rickard, "but in the ring he went to pieces. There may be a chance for Jeff to get into the form he was ten days before the battle, and if he can do that and hold his Mitzie was safe when Fisher had to remove his No. 11 from the bag in order to stop Hosp's wild heave. Willis sacrificed, Brackenridge to Fisher. Swander came through with his second single and Mitzie went to third and Swander to second on the double play. The Hooligans held off Cutsawh, who made a perfect play to the plate and headed off Mitzie. Maggart sent up a sky-scraper to Lindsay and it was all over, with no damage done. In the following frames both teams drew blanks.

JIMMY WHALEN GETS REVENGE.

SLAMS ANGELS AGAINST ROCKS IN THE FIRST GAME.

IBY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SACRAMENTO, July 24.—[EX-ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

JIMMY WHALEN, who has certainly been doing more than a silly man's share of the pitching during the last few months, had the honor yesterday of putting one over on the Angels.

"Der Whale," in the vernacular, "pitched his head off" and held the sluggers, who work for Dillon, safe at all stages. At least he held them safe when danger loomed. And all the time he was putting on the crusher he was smiling, smiling the smile of the sister-in with four aces and the green cloth covered with lures. His team-mates helped with some good hitting in the right moments, but "Der Whale" is entitled to a merit card.

The return of the Senators to their ballwick brought out the best in the south and it was a close and hot afternoon. Thomas F. Graham Judge in the Superior Court of San Francisco and president of the Pacific Coast League, sat in the press stand. The judge just returned from Portland where he witnessed the torrid series between the Seals and the White Sox.

E. Oelster proved himself the active apostle of his old proverbo, "Never say die." W. C. Burton, Minneapolis champion, had the first set on the German and the second set 5-love in games and the sixth game 40-15 and the Dardene play performed to almost unanimous 10-feet of the floor of the match. Seven times Burton lacked but one point of winning, but each time Oelster rose to the occasion, assisted too, very materially by luck, and the Minnesota man was never able to get the much-needed points. Oelster took the second set and then the deciding one, 6-4.

In the ladies' singles, which opened Saturday, the Paul visitors fared well. The young women came from the City of the Angels, but only two of them competed. Miss Davis and Miss Rees. Both won their matches.

A Physician on Food

A physician out in Oregon has views about food. He says:

"I have always believed that the duty of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health, especially by hygienic and dietetic laws."

"With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience and also from personal observation I have found no food to equal Grape-Nuts, and that I find them almost no limit to the great benefit this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and convalescence."

"It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. To persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach, especially at breakfast to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work. In cases of indigestion I know that a complete breakfast can be made of Grape-Nuts and cream, and I think it is necessary not to overload the stomach at the morning meal. I also know the great value of Grape-Nuts when the stomach is too weak to digest other food."

"This is written after an experience of more than 20 years of treating all manner of chronic and acute diseases, and the letter is written voluntarily on my part without any request for it."

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human

WHOLESALE ARRESTS ARE MADE OF ILLEGAL SWILL MEN.

HAULING swill became an expensive line of vocation last night when the police took a hand in the old garbage war and arrested eleven haulers of refuse.

Since the contract for swill hauling was let to Charles Alexander, many restaurants and hotels have claimed that they had a right to sell their garbage to whom they wished, regardless of contracts awarded by the City Council. Numerous independent garbage haulers have earned a competence by carrying on a private business and have competed with the Alexander interests.

Special instructions given to the police last night caused them to arrest all of the haulers of swill who did not have a permit. The only permit holders were Alexander's men.

R. Martinez, A. Platt, Y. Nakamura, G. Shimoda, C. C. Dustin, H. McIntyre, James Peterson, P. Elias, Edward Sullivan, Chung Wong, and Victor Hernandez, were arrested. They were all held until they produced $10 bail money.

Patrolman Owen arrested 4, Wyman 3, Fitzgerald 2, and Berry 2. Additional arrests were made early this morning.

BIG DEAL.

BRITISHERS BUY LARGE ACREAGE.

MILLION AND HALF DOLLARS IS INVOLVED.

Will Plant Ten Thousand Acres in San Joaquin Valley to Eucalyptus Trees—President of Selling Company is at Long Beach—Tells of Important Plans.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES: LONG BEACH, July 27.—Lacking but two signatures, which are daily expected, a deal will be closed in Los Angeles Friday, for San Joaquin Valley lands, involving an expenditure of $1,500,000 and the reclaiming by forestation of 10,000 acres, which is to be planted to eucalyptus.

The parties interested are the International Eucalyptus Company, with headquarters in Sacramento, and the Eucalyptus Securities Company of San Francisco. The president, John W. Sword, and secretary, O. O. Edwards, have been in the South for two weeks, to close the deal, and ran down to Hotel Virginia tonight for a day or two for recreation.

The purchasers are a syndicate of English people who buy 16,000 acres in Kern county, on which the securities company agrees to plant and care for eucalyptus trees, planting 2000 acres each year. Mr. Sword said tonight that until the contract had finally been closed it would be impolitic to give names. But the deal is consummated and as soon as the contract is signed word will be put to work planting the first 2000 acres.

"Everybody knows what eucalyptus tree culture is," said Mr. Sword. "It is the tree of trees and once started flourishes amazingly, and affords a safer investment by far than fruits or grain."

The Securities Company is in the business of timber growing, and this is its largest contract.

Stove Destroys Home.
During the absence of Mrs. Bertha Dampster, of No. 1824 Fairmount Avenue, yesterday afternoon, her children, under ten, left water in an oven. Then they went into the play. Soon they noticed smoke issuing from the kitchen door window, and in a few minutes interior was a mass of flames. There was no hope of saving the building, which was owned by Estelle Brown of Denver. The house and contents is $1000.

at the Bat.
Ellery, who is understood to be the backing of many good roads automobile clubs throughout the state, spoke to an audience in Turner Hall, which advanced him his name should be nominated for Governor of California. Ellery denounced Lincoln-Roosevelt League for vicious attacks made on him in some of league's newspapers and declared he is now in his own camp.

He will go to Pasadena tonight, Long Beach tomorrow night, after which will start North.

Both Fest.

August Ortega, a Mexican, whose name is unknown, fell under the skin of a moving Southern Pacific freight train at Lancaster yesterday noon and suffered the loss of both legs, which were cut off above the knee. It is believed that Ortega was trying to steal a ride. He was brought to the hospital at Lancaster, N.M., which is about 100 miles west of River Station at 8:30 o'clock night. He was taken to the County Hospital and given emergency treatment prior to an operation. Doctors there that he has a fair chance of recovery.

Fire Protection.
South Hoover and West Vernon Avenue Improvement Association held a meeting last night at Forty-ninth and Vernon streets, to start an active campaign for securing a fire department. The association has now 100 members, and it is desired to fully enlist the residents of the street and active work will be done at direction today. Tomorrow another meeting will be held and arrangements will be made to contribute a waist on the Water Commission, and lay before that body the services of fire protection for that section of the city.

Stone Here.
George Stone, comptroller of bonds at San Francisco, is at theandra for a few days, accompanied by his daughter. He is a figure in republican politics of the State. His first remarks was that not in politics in this campaign, on the outside of the firing just spectators he said. "Well, it's been just for a little vacation. Been over to Catalina, fishing. This is one of my remembrances," he remarked, snapping up a well-hanged thumb, then proceeded to tell of a great bass that was so strong it tore tackle, caught his thumb in the cutting it, and finally getting

New License Ordinance Signed by Mayor Is Referendum Proof—Booze
Sellers May Squeal and Teetotalers Protest Vainly.

THE NEW liquor ordinance, with an emergency clause making it referendum proof, passed the Council unanimously yesterday afternoon. The final draft was made by City Attorney Hewitt and the final action was unaccompanied by speech making.

Until the last some of the provisions were in doubt and it required the return of Mayor Alexander from his vacation and a noon-day star-chamber session to straighten things out. One of the disputed points was the elimination of stalls or booths from bar-rooms and Chairman Stewart of the Police Protective Committee, who had charge of the measure, insisted that this provision be struck out. It was not wholly eliminated, but was so modified that saloons may have open stalls with stationary chairs visible from all parts of the block frontage.

The return of the Mayor accomplished several things. It relieved him of the suspicion of running away from the necessity of passing on the new law and sent another note to the measure to the Council by relieving President Lusk of the Mayor's duties and, above all, it gave the Mayor a chance to see that the great unfanged method of subjecting King Rum to docility were through as he wanted it. And all of these things happened.

ON THE BENCH.

MEN OF EXPERIENCE FIT FOR PROBLEMS.

Candidates for Supreme and Superior Courts Who Have Demonstrated Their Ability as Judges and Are Up for Re-election.

WITH the appointment of Judge James to the vacancy on the bench of the Second District Court of Appeal, one of the strong candidates for Supreme Court Justice is removed from the field.

There will be two vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of Judges M. C. Sloss and Henry A. Melvin. Each is a candidate to succeed James. James was the only opponent of equal metal.

JUDGE MELVIN.

Judge Melvin was formerly a Superior Court Judge at Oakland. He has served the State with distinction since his elevation to the Supreme bench.

He is rarely gifted. As a lawyer he is a born fighter. He is a master of the law. He knows the history of legislation and the principles that he has been settled after long adjudication.

Judge Melvin is an orator, earnest in his speech and magnetic. As one of the leading members of the Elks and at one time Exalted Ruler of the order, he has made a wide acquaintance throughout the State.

He has been often in Los Angeles and commands the respect of the local members of the bar. It is believed that he will poll many thousand votes from the so-called Lincoln-Roosevelts, though he is a staunch regular Republican.

Probably the only element that will be arrayed against him will be the small number of his supporters who profess hatred because of his opposition to the Superior Court bench when agitators were threatening industrial disturbances in and around Oakland.

Since his elevation to the highest court in the State, Judge Melvin has more than once exposed the principles of industrial freedom and spoke in decided terms against the unlawfulness of the un-American boycott and picketing.

JUDGE SLOSS.

Judge Sloss is another Associate Justice of the Supreme Court who has undoubtedly been nominated to the August primaries. He is quiet in demeanor and singularly youthful in appearance. His opinions are considered judicial and weighty. He has the confidence of his associates throughout the State.

So far as has been known up to his candidacy that deserves mention, a local judge who has been urging his friends to advocate his candidacy is said to be discouraged and about ready to withdraw his support. The old man has disengaged his religious affiliation to the utmost, but the members of the bar have regarded his aspirations for higher judicial honors with coldness.

The general prediction is that Judges Melvin and Sloss will be nominated by handsome majorities and that both will be elected at the general election.

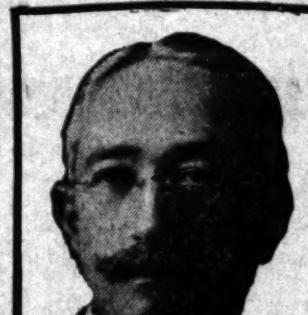

JUDGE SHAW.

Judge Victor E. Shaw is a candidate to succeed himself as one of the judges of the Second District Court of Appeal. He has several opponents, but none of them have developed any strength so far.

Judge Shaw was born in Pettis county, Mo., in 1854. At an early age he moved to Oregon with his parents. He received his education at Willamette University and went to the University of Michigan for his law course.

He practiced law in Missouri for seven years and then moved to Oregon. He accepted in that state with Henry T. Titus. He soon secured a good practice and was attorney for several large corporations.

He was elected one of the judges

Deputy Dist.-Atty. McCormick to Superior Bench.

Judge William P. James, of the Superior Court, was yesterday appointed Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals to the Second District by Gov. Gillett to succeed Justice James W. Taggart, who died on the 13th ult.

Paul J. McCormick, the deputy in charge of the Central Police Station branch of the District Attorney's office, was designated to succeed Judge James.

Both appointments met with general approval.

The length of the terms which they will serve is uncertain on account of an ambiguity in the law. It states that the appointees shall hold office until the next general election.

Whether this is one held in November or this year is not clear. The measure under the meaning of the law or the next one which will be held two years hence, is a debated point among lawyers.

The appointees will be unable to get on the tickets for the primary election of next year unless they take the opportunity of running in November as independent candidates to succeed themselves on January 1.

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL.

Judge James yesterday officially announced that he would withdraw his candidacy for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

"I prefer to remain at home," he said in this respect. "My name is on the ballot, but I desire to have it known that I am not a candidate for the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court."

The appointment of Justice James comes as a shock to the many friends of Dr. Edwin C. Buell to learn of his death in Genoa, from an attack of appendicitis. When he left here in March no friend thought that he would ever die.

Mrs. Buell, always very frail, died in January, and the doctor was much affected by his loss, so when a party

It will come as a shock to the many friends of Dr. Edwin C. Buell to learn of his death in Genoa, from an attack of appendicitis. When he left here in March no friend thought that he would ever die.

The doctor was brought to California by his wife, Mrs. Buell, in 1909, and she died in 1910.

Mrs. Buell, always very frail, died in January, and the doctor was much affected by his loss, so when a party came to call him to the office to tell him of her death.

He became Chief Deputy District Attorney eight years ago. Two years ago he was appointed to the Superior Court.

His qualifications for the position were readily recognized. He had little opposition when he was up for election for six-year term two years ago. His selection a year ago as presiding judge was approved by the practicing attorneys, who were pleased with his legal attainments, his dignity and his fairness.

Judge James is married and resides at No. 112 Magnolia avenue. He has a family of two children. The term of the Appellate Court justiceship runs for eight years. It carries with it a salary of $7000 a year.

YOUNGEST JUDGE.

Judge McCormick is the youngest member of the Supreme Court of this State. He is four months past 32 years of age, being several months younger than Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino.

The judge was born in New York, April 25, 1879, and came to San Diego in 1887. He was educated in the public schools of Southern California and in St. Ignatius College, San Francisco. He studied law in the Los Angeles library under Secretary T. W. Robinson, who was admitted to the bar in 1906. He became a deputy under Dist.-Atty. Fredericks in 1905, and three years later was put in charge of the branch office at the Post Office.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Police Commission dismissed Solomon, a Dixon special police, last night, and declined to grant pay for his vacation.

A fight began in Judge Conrey's court yesterday, involving the management and control of the All Night Day Bank, in the sale of 1155 of its capital stock, which had been pledged.

Mary Kennedy lost her case in Judge Conrey's court yesterday, involving the action of the Pan American Railways.

Figures were given indicating no money was made in the enterprise by the promoters.

Interesting questions involving management and rules of railways were raised in Judge Houser's court today, in the case brought by Mrs. Stangeland for the recovery of Southern Pacific's wishes.

Miss E. Havens dropped her division against her husband, Arthur E. Havens, a prominent member of Jonathan Club, in Judge Cole's court yesterday.

MISSSES FORMER CAPTAIN'S SPECIAL PATROLMAN.

so Declines Without Legal Advice Honor Dismissed Officer's Demand for Vacation Pay—Charges against Varey Filed by Chief Green Carpet for Others.

Shees of Dixon were heard in the meeting of the Police Commission last night. One echo was the revocation of the special police powers possessed by Sam Solomon for the district ended by Aliso, Vignes, First and Second streets and in which last month Chief Galloway found several officers that had been running for months without molestation or beat by Solomon.

Solomon was one of the Dixon officers and was credited with being the captain's representative, not on his special beat, but in "Little Joe" where there are many Japanese liquor licensees and poolrooms.

Chief Galloway urged that his powers be revoked because he had not received the places mentioned and also that Solomon had spoken disrespectfully of the Police Commission in presence of Patrolman Cornwall.

"Disrespectful" language was not used by the Chief.

There was little ceremony in revoking Solomon's authority when the commission came to a decision.

Another echo was when a request of Dixon was read asking two days' pay for a vacation which he entitled to had he remained on the force.

A similar request was made by Captain Housen when he was dismissed from the force and was declared illegal by the City Attorney.

The commission, however, referred on's request to the attorney for justice.

Captain Varey started toboggans for other badge-wearers. He is reported Police License Inspector H. L. Varey for using discouraging language to V. J. North, agent of the Maryland Casualty Company, his office. Varey recently reported his reduced language "obnoxious" and said Varey told him he had better stand in with the police. The officer reiterated his report on Varey months ago when the inspector, a particular pet of Mayor Alexander, cited on charges preferred by John Shultz, whom Varey had indicated could not answer his tongue well sooner or later bring the department into disrepute. For the third time Varey is cited to appear last Monday night and stand trial. Last time he was ordered reprimanded by the Mayor.

Patrolman W. W. Fletcher of the diversity division was also cited to appear next Monday night to answer charges of unbecoming conduct. G. A. Morton of No. 1006 East 1st Street, whose wife is Mexican, was arrested at the time he was serving a restaurant from a side bar. His restaurant license was reissued several months ago.

HARBOR KICKS. WANT PROMISES KEPT.

Harbor residents and the Harbor Commission reminded the Council that year has passed since the consolidations promises were made and that thing had been done to redeem them.

C. H. Eubank of Wilmington reminded the Council that this year watching exclusively for harbor improvements as promised. He asked at $100,000 be advanced out of the general funds to be repaid from the end funds, but doubt as to the legalities of this caused reference of the sole question to the City Attorney.

Among other things, the Wilmington opus in a municipal bond issue of about $100,000 and the Harbor Committee was directed to visit the harbor took and select landings for it. The council promised to heed its neglected promises on other things, too.

New City Plan.

Deafminded Gregory would have a survey of the plans for the City beautiful made by Charles Mulford Robinson over three years ago. He introduced a resolution in the Council yesterday asking that the Mayor appoint a committee to direct the preparation of a comprehensive city plan.

The large arbitration award of $100,000 made by C. H. Parent against Lee A. McConnell for one-half of a commission of $2750 involved in the sale of the Stimson property on Spring street between Third and Fourth streets, in favor of the defendant. The property was sold to William M. Carlson.

committees and the Council referred the resolution to the Public Welfare Committee.

DENIES FRANCHISE.

The Council yesterday denied the request of the Los Angeles Railway for franchises to operate its cars on Alpine and Ann streets. Tracks were laid there a few weeks ago, when the 15th avenue viaduct was completed with the understanding that a franchise would be granted whenever asked for. Subsequently the franchises were made a part of the Buena Vista bridge scheme, but the Council ignored them and instead rescinded all action. It will insist on a girder rail provision in any ordinance granting a franchise if the company asks for one in the future. But the Council agreed to hear the application of the Broadway Land Company for franchises to the railroad, in the first instance. Lissner's wishes were followed but not in the last.

EXPENSIVE DOG Pound.

At the suggestion of Chairman Washburn of the Finance Committee, the Council yesterday authorized an investigation of what has become of the $21,181 collected during the past fiscal year for dog licenses and which was paid to the Human Animal Commission, which is run by Francis G. Hale. The Council is inclined to consider it an administration joke, as it macts in security and about the only thing known of its doings is the cash items in the City Hall when the dog license money is transferred to it and paid put in pay rolls. Some members of the Council wonder why it takes so much to operate a dog pound.

CITY HALL BREVIETES.

The Council yesterday approved the new distribution of assessments for the widening of Hill street, between Pico and Washington streets. It levied nine-tenths of the cost on the Hill street, and one-twentieth on side streets.

The Union Hollywood Water Company spent half a day yesterday getting its pumping plant at Thirty-fifth and Cimarron streets excepted from the industrial district, so that it may pump water for the west side territory.

AQUEDUCT FINANCES.

The aqueduct bond matters will be closed up this morning in the Council, when the Finance Committee makes a full report. The final telegram from the New York Life assuring its payment was received by Chairman Washburn yesterday.

FLAGMAN ORDINANCES.

With the age limit of fifty years cut out, which raised such a row two months ago, the Council passed the ordinance requiring physical examination for all flagmen on duty at railroad crossings in the city.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

SKIRMISH FOR FINAL CONTROL.

ALL DAY AND NIGHT BANK IN FIGHT FOR STOCK.

Buyer of Over Thousand Shares Would Force Institution to Issue Certificate for Amount of Purchase. Collateral Was for Loans from Other Financial Organizations.

With the clearing away of the legal brushwood in the case of Hugh Blue, trustee, against the All Night and Day Bank, in Judge Conrey's court yesterday, the hearing of the action on its merits will begin this morning.

The honors between the contending parties were about even as a result of the preliminary skirmishes of the day. The bank people were allowed to file a supplementary answer which was in the nature of an interpleader, but when the advantage was sought to be pushed by having the case non-suited the court decided against it.

The issues to be determined are important from the legal point of view, the attorney of the institution, W. G. Morton, informing the court that the management and control of the bank was the crux in the situation, a proposition that Judge John D. Pope, representing Hugh Blue was not inclined to resent.

The case arises over a loan negotiated by certain officers and directors of the All Night and Day Bank, stock of the bank being given as security, that the money being paid out was not paid. It is to secure the delivery of the stock that the pending action has to do, the bank people alleging that the sale was not legally made.

The first loan was negotiated by President Newton J. Skinner and Secretary George A. Brandt, and last, when 250 shares of stock of the bank were pledged to L. C. Brandt, president of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, for a loan of $64,000. A note was given for the money, and that instrument states that the shares given as security might be sold without notice to the bank.

About that time Director Ben Stiles and H. V. Wall secured a loan of $30,000 from the Pasadena National, County National and Colton National banks, and for this 25% shares of the capital stock of the All Night and Day Bank were placed as collateral, and it was agreed, upon due notice to the makers thereof, the collateral in the shape of shares of stock was offered at public sale, and the whole lot was bought by Mr. Brandt.

Then an action was brought by Hugh Blue to compel the bank to accept his bank to take up the various certificates calling for 1155 shares of the capital stock of the institution, and issue to him in lieu thereof one certificate calling for the entire number of shares, and this the bank refused to do.

Attorney Pope, in presenting the side of the plaintiff, said the proceedings were merely a subterfuge to escape the payment of an honest debt. There was no dispute that the bank officers bore the main responsibility for the stock was conducted under the proper forms of law. The counsel thought it queer proceeding that a man, or set of men, could escape the responsibility of their financial doings by putting up various pieces and allegations that were merely for the purpose of gaining time.

Attorney Morton, for the bank, argued that it was a question of who owned the stock that had been sold, and he also attacked the legality of the stock, alighting the president. Brandt had purchased the holdings at a figure below the real market value of the marriage with Hackworth.

STORY OF FINANCING. PAN-AMERICAN RAILWAY.

The story of the efforts of financiers to promote the Pan-American Railway, running to the southern line of the Republic of Mexico, was told in Judge James' court yesterday, in the action brought by Henry Kennedy against Winter Everett, for an allowance for special services alleged to have been performed in behalf of Everett by the plaintiff when the enterprise was first broached. The suit of Kennedy was filed in 1901, and he pleaded for further time, but the court ordered the hearing to proceed.

The claim of Kennedy is said to have arisen in relation to an introduction given by him to M. Neeland, another promoter. Kennedy said that Everett promised verbally to share with him any profits that he made in exchange for services in connection to which he was entitled. Judge James found for the defendant, the testimony showing that there had been no profit in the Pan-American enterprise.

Everett testified that he put $25,000 in the enterprise, but realized no profit. When he closed out his interest in the corporation of his road, he received $5 per cent of his investment, returned by the Mexican government as concession money, and accepted for the balance bonds of the Pan-American road at $0. He said there was also a general interest in the railway of $25,000, which is claimed from the Mexican government, but that in his opinion it would never be collected. Everett said he disposed of his interest to D. P. Doak, the present head of the corporation.

J. M. Neeland, what at one time owned 40 per cent of the stock of the Pan-American Company, while the Everett interests held 60 per cent, said it had been estimated that $250,000 would be required to complete the first division of the road and obtain a concession of money from the Mexican government.

B. Baruch, who with M. N. Newmark, both of this city, invested $75,000 in the enterprise, estimated that $250,000 was put up by the partners for the construction work, which was done through a subsidiary company, known as the Chiapas Construction Company. For this amount the investors received from the Mexican government a concession of $110,000 and from the Pan-American Railway Company a bonus of $1,000.

H. R. Shumway, a former treasurer, testified that he had been offered $5 cents on the dollar for the bonds.

MOTHER'S WISH. DIVORCE CASE DROPPED.

The divorce suit brought by Myrtle E. against Arthur L. Havens fell by the wayside in Judge Cole's court yesterday. The plaintiff forgot, or at least neglected, to appear and, on motion of the defendant's attorney, the case was dismissed. Havens was in court ready to fight the case, but his wife was absent.

In explanation of the non-appearance, her attorney made the statement to the court that he had informed his client some time ago that there was not sufficient evidence for her to secure a divorce, and he advised her to see some other lawyer about the matter. He had heard nothing from her since.

The couple were married in Spokane, Wash., in 1906, and the allegations of the suit were that the gravity Oil Company was organized as agreed, but the initial payment of $5000 on the purchase of the land has not been made, neither has there been any stock issued to the plaintiff or any one else, it is asserted by Broslaski, who was then President of the Bank of Southern California, but it is admitted that Neeland furnished large amounts of money out of his private purse for the purpose of incorporating and promoting the company.

Neeland agreed with Broslaski to perform the services as alleged in the petition, with the result that the Gravity Oil Company was organized as agreed, but the initial payment of $5000 on the purchase of the land has not been made, neither has there been any stock issued to the plaintiff or any one else, it is asserted by Broslaski, who was then President of the Bank of Southern California, but it is admitted that Neeland furnished large amounts of money out of his private purse for the purpose of incorporating and promoting the company.

economy. It is well to know a few simple ways of cleaning at home.

If the black material of which your frock is fashioned becomes gray from dust, or even if it has become shiny, it may be freshened by wiping it with alcohol. Black hats may also be treated in the same way, and even creases can be thus freshened.

Black gowns which have become much spattered can be cleaned with common brown kitchen soap. Make a thick suds of the soap, sponge the goods thoroughly, then rinse. Press on the wrong side or under a thick cloth.

This prevents the goods from becoming yellowish.

With mud stains remain on a black skirt after careful washing, they can often be removed by rubbing with half of a raw potato.

Ammونium, which is so often used in cleaning black gowns, is really not a proper cleanser for such materials, as it tends to make them rusty, especially if they are of silk.

Above all things, in the care of black garments, is the necessity of brushing properly. This should be done as soon as the garment is taken off. First give it a good shaking; then carefully go over the hem with a stiff brush. Follow carefully with a fine whisk. Next use a soft velvet brush or a piece of black cotton for removing dirt from all silk or net trimming. Put your black frock away in a dust-proof bag, and when next you wish to wear it, you will find it fresh as if newly made. This is much better than to have to stop and get it in order when you are in a hurry to go somewhere; and it is also better for the dress.

YMN UNLOCKS WIDOW'S TEARS

Widaman Is Victim to Duty,

Witnesses Describe Tragedy
at Artesia.

With scarcely more than a word of reference to the grim tragedy that short his life, the remains of Oliver Perry Widaman were laid away by a man who gave his name as Frank M. Bell, was the verdict of the Coroner's jury which sat yesterday morning.

The inquest, which was held at the Orr & Edwards establishment, was formal and quickly concluded. But the witnesses were called and these shed no new light on the tragedy. The only semblance of a sensation was caused when members of the jury began questioning witnesses to learn whether Widaman was armed at the time of the shooting.

The jurors were C. L. Brimhall, J. Pickles, J. Kennedy, J. G. Bedford, Frank W. Haddock and Fred A. Littoot.

Attorneys Fleming and Dominguez attended the inquest on behalf of the defendant, and Deputy Dist. Atty. Keyes examined the witnesses for the people. The only relatives of the dead man present were young Delos Davison, a brother of Mrs. Widaman, who was called to the stand to identify the body, and Ben R. Divison, also a brother, who was not called upon.

A E. Beavin, the editor-proprietor of the food and liquor stable at Artesia, was the first witness called after young Davison. Beavin said he was standing near the middle of the two-car train on the depot platform, when his attention was attracted by a shot of the Second District Court of Appeal in 1906. He drew the short term of four years hence is the first of the justices of that court to be a candidate for reelection.

He has the support of the members of the bar generally. A large number of representative citizens have endorsed him as well. He is noted for the clarity of his opinions and the amount of the study he gives to every case assigned to him by the presiding Justice.

He makes a dignified appearance upon the bench, and is very affable and companionable when not engaged in his legal work. He belongs to a number of clubs and makes his home in this city.

JUDGE MOSS.

Judge Leon F. Moss is candidate for nomination as Judge of the Superior Court at the coming primaries. He has been a long resident of this county and has occupied a prominent place.

He was born at Cuba, Fulton county, Ill., in 1881. He studied at Valparaiso University and completed his law course in the office of Hon. P. W. Gallagher of Fulton county.

He began practice in 1885 and came to California in 1887. He is son of the late George Walker Moss, who was a sergeant in the 163rd Illinois Volunteers. His father was killed at the battle of Kenesaw Mountain. His grandfather, also fighting for his country, was killed at Mission Ridge.

Judge Moss thus has good fighting blood in his veins and he has always been a consistent fighter in his business life.

He has a number of important cases before his appointment to the Superior Court bench, and was regarded as one of the leading attorneys of this city.

Since he has announced his candidacy for nomination at the primaries he has received endorsement from hundreds of representative citizens.

Prior to Judge Moss's appointment to the judicial position he now holds, Gov. Gillett was asked to appoint Moss.

One of the letters was written by Judge Lucien Shaw of the Supreme Court, who is one of the best known jurists in the State. The letter is as follows:

SAN FRANCISCO (Cal.) Jan. 20, 1909.
Hon. J. N. Gillett, Governor of Cal.:—

Dear Sir:—Understand that Mr. F. Moss is or will be an applicant for appointment to the Superior Court of this county if the act making the new judges is approved.

Mr. Moss was in active practice in Los Angeles during nearly all of the fourteen years that I served as Superior Judge of that county. He has a decided record and a position to know his capacity. He is a man of exceptionally clear, keen intellect and of great ability. In his profession I know of no member of the bar at Los Angeles better fitted for the office than Mr. Moss.

He participated in many of the many contests in which he has participated he may have made some enemies, but I am sure that he is a man of high character and is well liked and respected by his colleagues in the bar.

Yours very truly,

LUCIEN SHAW.

JUDGE DAVIS.

Judge George R. Davis of the Superior Court is one of the able candidates for one of the three vacancies on the bench of this county.

He was born in Huntville, Ohio. He was educated in that state and in 1887 came up upon the practice of law. In 1897, the late President McKinley appointed him one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Arizona. He served with distinction and was re-appointed by ex-President Roosevelt at the end of his first term.

Judge Davis passed his summer vacation in and around Los Angeles.

He became enamored with this genial climate and finally decided to become a citizen of California. He has made his home in Pasadena for several years and has built up a large circle of friends.

Gov. Gillett appointed him as one of the judges when the State Legislature created three new departments of the Superior Court. He has presided over a number of important trials and has seldom been reversed in the Appellate Court.

He is high in Masonic honors and has been a member of several other fraternal organizations.

case of John S. Briggs of San Juan street, who complained to the regarding the Lake Vineyard installing street mains, was again brought up yesterday morning, in the form of a report of the Fire and Water Committee. It was reported that Briggs has good grounds for his com-less to render any assistance.

North Raymond avenue, from Chest-will be paved with macadam and the work will be deferred until after the first of next year.

The street paving on California street, from Grant Avenue to Arden Road, has been hung up on account of no bidders. The job comprehends a cost of $75,000. The ordinary local contractors state it is too big for them.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

A LINIMENT FOR EXTERNAL USE.

One of the most valuable qualities of Mother's Friend is that it safe-guards the future health of the mother. It is a liniment to be applied externally to the body, the use of which lubricates the muscles and tendons, softens the glands and ducts, prevents lumps forming in the breasts, and relieves the pain, nervousness, and other troubles from which so many expectant mothers suffer.

When Mother's Friend is used regularly it fits and prepares the system for easy and natural consumption of the term. Women who manage their household concerns and all products were being cut
